Constitution

of the

Western Region of the National Association of Graduate-Professional Students

Article I. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Western Region of the National Association of Graduate-Professional Students, hereafter referred to as the Western Region.

Article II. Purpose

The Western Region exists to fulfill purposes set forth in the Constitution of the National Association of Graduate-Professional Students, henceforth referred to as NAGPS. The Western Region shall exist:

1. To facilitate communication among members.
2. To encourage development and growth of graduate-professional student organizations.
3. To retain existing member organizations and recruit new schools to NAGPS membership.
4. To coordinate and promote regional events.
5. To represent the graduate-professional student body of the Western United States and U.S. Territories to NAGPS and advocate on behalf of members and member's interests.

Article III. Membership and Voting

Section 1. Western Regional membership eligibility shall be consistent with NAGPS policy as defined in the Constitution and Bylaws of NAGPS. Regional membership is extended to all NAGPS student organizations and individual members within its territory. The Individual Members shall comprise the Individual Members Caucus, herein the Caucus.

Section 2. Tenure shall be defined as the right to vote, acquired by eligible members that are members of NAGPS as defined in the NAGPS Constitution and Bylaws. Eligible member organizations and the Caucus shall each designate one Voting Delegate for voting purposes.

Article IV. Regional Organizational Structure and the Elections

- Section 1. The Western Region shall include an Executive Board whose duties shall include conduction of all regional business and coordination of regional activities. Governance within the region shall be in accordance with regulations herein and board members are subject to the conditions of this document.
- Section 2. The Executive Board shall be comprised of elected and appointed officers, under the direction of its Chair who will also represent the region on the NAGPS Board of Directors. Executive Offices on the Western Regional Board are the Western Regional Chair, the Western Regional Vice Chair, the Western Regional Director of Communication and Outreach, the Western Regional Director of Administration, Western Regional Director of Legislative Concerns, Western Regional International Concerns Advocate, the Western Regional Employment Concerns Advocate, the Western Regional Social Justice Advocate, and the Western Regional Chair of the Regional Conference.
- Section 3. The Officers, with the exception of the Western Regional Chair and the Western Regional Chair of the Regional Conference, shall be elected by a majority vote of all Voting Delegates at the Regional Conference. The Western Regional Chair shall be elected by a majority vote of all Voting Delegates at the National Conference. The Western Regional Chair of the Regional Conference will be appointed by the school hosting the Regional Conference.
- Section 4. Terms of office for all positions except the Western Regional Chair shall be one year and run from one Western Regional Conference to the Western Regional Conference of the subsequent year. For the Western Regional Chair, the term of office will also be one year but will run from one National Conference to the National Conference of the subsequent year.
- Section 5. Any member of the Executive Board may impeach, with formal allegations, another member of the Executive Board based on behavior in Office. Any member of the Executive Board may be removed from Office by a two-thirds majority vote cast by the Executive Board within a one-week calendar period from the date of impeachment. The Executive Board shall immediately make known the outcome of the vote and the allegations to the membership.
- Section 6. If an Officer is unable to finish the term of office or an office is vacant following elections, the remaining members of the Executive Board shall appoint a replacement for the remainder of the term by a simple majority vote, with the exception for the Western Regional Chair, of which the replacement shall be selected among the remaining members of the Executive Board by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Section 7. Any replacement must be confirmed by the membership at the next Voting Delegates' Meeting. If a replacement is not confirmed or no replacement has been selected, an election shall be held immediately.

Section 8. No person shall hold more than one office on the Western Regional Executive Board.

Section 9. No member organization shall hold more than 1/2 of Executive Board positions.

Article V. Meetings

Section 1. Executive Board Meetings

- A. Official business meetings shall be defined as meetings where the Voting Delegates or Executive Board members of the Western Region discuss issues relating to their functions as defined in this Constitution and the Regional Bylaws.
- B. An absolute majority, more than half of paid members, shall constitute a quorum for all official Western Regional Executive Board meetings.
- C. All Western Regional Executive Board business shall be official following approval by an affirmative absolute majority of the Western Regional Executive Board. The Western Regional Chair may call a vote of the Executive Board without calling to order an official business meeting. In this event, the Western Regional Chair shall inform all Officers of the vote and allow them at least 48 hours to discuss the issue(s) after the last member is informed of the vote.
- D. All members of the Western Regional Executive Board shall have the right to actively participate and set motions before the floor during official business meetings.

Section 2. Voting Delegates Meetings

- A. Each member organization of the Western Region, as well as a representative of the Individual Caucus, is responsible for naming one voting delegate at each Voting Delegates meeting.
- B. The Western Regional Voting Delegates shall meet at least twice a year at the National Conference and Western Regional Conference.

- C. A meeting of the Western Regional Voting Delegates can be called outside of the Conferences by the Western Regional Chair. Notification of the meeting must be given to all member organizations at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting.
- D. An absolute majority, more than half of the member organizations (including the individual caucus as one organization), shall constitute a quorum for all Voting Delegates meetings.

Section 3. E-mail Meetings

- A. Both Executive Board meetings and Voting Delegates meetings may need to be conducted through e-mail.
 - a. E-mail meetings can be called with a message to all members stating that an e-mail meeting is called to order.
 - b. If the e-mail consists of voting on measures, a ballot must be included in the e-mail text. This ballot must state what is to be voted on and a clear designation of the choices. At least 24 hours must be designated prior to the opening of voting for discussion of the measure. Voting must also be open for at least 24 hours.
 - c. For the purposes of e-mail meetings, a quorum will only be counted if a ballot is distributed. An absolute majority, more than half of the member organizations, must return a marked ballot to constitute quorum.

Article VI. Amendments

Section 1. This constitution may only be amended at a Voting Delegates' meeting of the Western Region of NAGPS.

Section 2. The approval of a constitutional amendment shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Voting Delegates present at the Western Regional Voting Delegates' meeting.

Section 3. Any member or Officer may propose an amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Western Regional Executive Board at least one month prior to the Voting Delegates' meeting. An amendment submitted by a member after the deadline will require approval of two-thirds of the Voting Delegates present to bring it to the floor of the Voting Delegates' meeting.

Section 4. The Region shall not adopt any bylaws that are in conflict with this Constitution or the National Constitution.

- Section 5. Proposed amendments may be amended during the Voting Delegates' meeting.
- Section 6. Amendments to the Regional Bylaws shall require a three-fifths majority vote of the Voting Delegates present.
- Section 7. Amendments passed shall become effective immediately unless otherwise specified in the motion to amend.
