

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF GRADUATE-
PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS

2020 FALL ADVOCACY SUMMIT and LEGISLATIVE ACTION DAYS

October 3rd and 4th
WASHINGTON, DC

ABOUT NAGPS

The National Association of Graduate-Professional Students is the largest non-profit organization advocating for graduate and professional students at public and private institutions across the nation. NAGPS represents more than half a million students across the country.

ABOUT the SUMMIT

Learn more about policy areas that impact graduate-professional education and interact with professionals and policy experts. Listen to the experiences of fellow students and develop advocacy and organizing skills to increase the effectiveness of your efforts at your institution and in your state.

ABOUT LEGISLATIVE ACTION DAYS

Be the voice of graduate-professional students in the US and carry our message to members of Congress and congressional staff. Visit with policymakers, advocates, and fellow students during a celebration of graduate-professional education and expand your professional network.

WHAT to EXPECT

THEMES, PROGRAMMING, and TAKEAWAYS

This is a live document that you will be able to refer to leading up to the Summit. We will update it continually, providing primers, reference materials, leave-behinds, and other documents. Last minute changes to the program or resources will also be uploaded here, so we encourage you to bookmark this and refer to it often.

Our Fall LAD programming is structured around four broad themes with the following intended takeaways:

Policy Area Workshops

Learn about important issues and policies affecting graduate-professional students' education and careers.

Skills Training

Develop and practice actionable skills and competencies to improve your advocacy, communication, and leadership activities.

Organized Advocacy

Join other graduate-professional students to share your unique perspective with members of Congress and congressional staff.

Professional Networking

Develop your network by meeting other students, members of Congress, congressional staff, policy experts, and others from the education, science and research communities
